

EDU532: Effective Classroom Instruction for Middle and Secondary Students

A course designed for candidates in the alternative initial certification program that provides a foundation for designing and planning effective classroom instruction for middle and secondary students—using National and Kentucky curriculum documents, research, and best practices. Course activities are online and are differentiated and various majors/subject areas.

Credit Hour(s): 6

Department: Education