

EDU621: Special Topics in Environmental Education

This course will provide the opportunity for study of environmental education issues not necessarily covered in other courses. In addition, candidates may receive credit for participation in approved environmental education professional development opportunities as a partition of this course.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Education