

EDA722: School District Administration

This course will focus on school management, including, but not limited to, operations of federal, state and local laws governing school system administration, school finance, personnel, food service, facilities, transportation, school safety and school-based councils.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Education Administration