

EDA726: Leading School District Change

This course will focus on the roles and responsibilities of the school district super-intendent, including, but not limited to, understanding leadership theory, analyzing data to make school district decisions and how to lead the change process through scaling innovation and advanced leadership development.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Education Administration