

ECE600: Introduction to Teaching Students with Moderate and Severe Disabilities

This course addresses the issues and trends of teaching persons who are diagnosed with moderate and severe disabilities. Focus is on the instructional, social, education, and transitional needs. Working with families and collaboration in inclusive settings is included.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Exceptional Child Education