

ECE610: Supporting Challenging Behaviors

This course will address the behavioral needs of students with moderate to severe disabilities. The focus is assessment of behaviors and behavior interventions and how to implement in the MSD classroom. Applied behavior analysis theory is examined. Candidates are required to complete a field practicum working with MSD students as a requirement of this class.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Exceptional Child Education