

ECE614: Social Skills Development and Community Access

This course examines the community resources and access for students with moderate to severe disabilities. The course explores social skill theories of development and how it impacts students in the MSD classroom. Candidates are required to complete a field practicum working with MSD students as a requirement of this class.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Exceptional Child Education