

EDU543: Interdisciplinary Methods and Assessment for Elementary Teachers (Science, Math, STEM)

Development of sound philosophy of effective and affective teaching in the elementary school. Includes effective instructional practices, quality assessment, and creating a positive learning environment, with an emphasis on Science, Math, and STEM. A 45-hour field experience in school classrooms is required.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Education